TYLER JUNIOR COLLEGE

H. E. JENKINS, PRESIDENT
TYLER, TEXAS

DR. H. E. JENKINS
President

To the Students and Faculty:

This year we have had a rare privilege. It is given to few persons to participate in the establishment of an institution which shall serve for generations. This has been our privilege this college year of 1948-49.

It has been ours to participate in the development and the opening of a new college—new in every detail. This has been a strenuous task, but the faculty and students of Tyler Junior College, realizing the importance of the work in which they were engaged, have cooperated in a splendid manner in this new venture.

It will be a matter of great pride and pleasure to you who are the faculty and students of this "founding year" to observe and to foster the continued development and progress of your new Tyler Junior College.

May I congratulate you upon the opportunity which has been yours and upon the splendid manner in which you took advantage of that opportunity to make a lasting contribution.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, reading "H. E. Jenkins". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

H. E. Jenkins, President
Tyler Junior College

Editor
Apache Annual Year-book
Tyler Junior College

Dear Sir:

It has been a pleasure and an honor to spend an hour or so judging this contest for you. Where else do I get to look at so many pretty girls who are also smart?

My choices, one to ten, are: Joan Curtis, Greta Gill, Wynelle Jones, Elizabeth Johnson, Joyce Maddox, Elaine Fagan, Hazel Shaw, Sammie Moncrief, Betty Cason, and Doris Lybrand.

As for the five runners-up, I have to do a pretty tough job in choosing. So I select Elnora Richburg, Nell Durham and Evelyn Brown in a tie for first runner-up; Joan Florence, Merry Lu Johnson, and Nelwyn Calhoun in a tie for second runner-up; Sue Parker, Pat Risher, tie for third runner up; Patsy Stephens, Marion Murray tie for fourth runner up; and Carolyn Rhodes, and Jo Ann Gentry a tie for fifth runner-up.

I thought it would be just a lot of fun looking a pretty girls, but it is a tough job, and I do hope I bore out the confidence you placed in me as a picker.

PETER LAWFORD
